Wachusett Regional High School
Holden, Mass.

IT IS NO EASY TASK TO EVALUATE THE RESULTS
OF ONE MAN'S INFLUENCE AFTER ONLY ONE YEAR OF SERVICE.

IF A SINCERE ATTITUDE OF HELPFULNESS, A PLEASANT PERSONALITY, AND UNTIRING EFFORTS ON BEHALF OF THE STUDENT BODY ARE THE REQUISITES OF THE OFFICE OF ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL,
WE OF WACHUSETT REGIONAL HIGH HAVE BEEN FORTUNATE, INDEED, IN HAVING MR. LaPRADE IN THAT OFFICE.

HIS GENUINE FRIENDLINESS AND REGARD FOR THE STUDENTS, WHILE UPHOLDING THE DISCIPLINE NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN THE HIGH STANDARDS OF OUR SCHOOL, HAVE ENDEARED HIM TO US ALL.

WITH THESE THOUGHTS IN MIND, WE, THE THIRD
GRADUATING CLASS OF WACHUSETT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL,
TAKE PLEASURE IN DEDICATING OUR YEARBOOK TO MR. LaPRADE.

Dedicated

I N M E M O R

WE at Wachusett were saddened this past year by the death of our librarian, Miss Ada I. Carlson.

Miss Carlson helped to organize the school library and served as its librarian from September, 1956, until her death. During this time she won the regard and affection of the students by her sincere interest in their welfare and the willingness with which she helped them make full use of the library's facilities.

Her attributes were those of a good teacher: patience, understanding, a sense of humor, and genuine enthusiasm for her work.

Our memories of her will always be warm and friendly, full of gratitude and respect for the great amount of good she did for us and our school.

Class History

The year is 1982. The situation is the twenty-fifth reunion of the class of 1957. The program, "This Is Your Life," is going to do our life.

I have been thinking a lot about our high school days. In 1953, groups of bewildered students entered the schools in their respective towns. How frightened we were by the big books we had received and by the new courses we were taking! We students were destined to merge, forming the illustrious class of 1957 at Wachusett Regional High School. I must not diverge any further, for the house lights are going down, the audience is hushed, the curtain is going up.

"This is your life, class of '57," says the master of ceremonies.

"Let's begin the program with your sophomore year. As the doors of your new school opened, in walked a sophomore class which had not been united in its freshman year. With maps in hand and feeling like freshmen again, you inevitably found this building too large, but through teachers' and other students' directions you didn't miss too many classes that first week.

"That year you elected your class officers in a new, democratic way. The two party system was used and each candidate launched his campaign wholeheartedly. Here were the winners: your president, Sam Elliott; your vice-president, Buddy Amidon; your secretary, Catherine Christmas; and your treasurer, Jon Miles.

"By now you had become acquainted with the school. No longer were you so timid, so you began joining many activities such as the Glee Club, Latin Club, Band, and Dramatics Clubs.

"Your class was well-represented on the newly organized 'Echo' staff. Will Calvin Anderson, Sandra Jacobson and Janet Hogberg please come forth, for they were the members.

"Let's turn to the sports angle. To the newly formed varsity football squad your class added the following and will they please stand up as their names are read: Don Perry, Fran Jennette, Vincent Keough, Don Granberg and Robert Sanders.

"Your one contribution to the girls' hockey squad was Karen Manty.

"Soon the season of basketball rolled around and your class was rooting for their two classmates, Bud Amidon and Fran Jennette. Again you boasted Karen Manty as your sophomore contribution to the sport of basketball.

"The summer months had now drawn nigh, and school was recessed until September. The months flew by and soon the fall months were upon you.

"With a new outlook on school life and a feeling of prestige, you began your junior year with great aspiration. You felt you were a more important part of the school, no longer getting lost in the corridors, no longer being laughed at for your childish antics, and no longer feeling insignificant.

"Like old hands you indulged in your campaign and elected the following officers: president, once again, Sam Elliott; vice-president, Richard Lambert, who took over so ably when Sam moved away; secretary, Allegra Johnson; and treasurer, Andrea Rogers.

"This year you even made history, not world-wide history, but a part of the history of the school. The first Student Council was incorporated. You were represented on the body by Catherine Christmas, Marilyn Lundquist, Dick Purington and Dana Kierstead.

"You cheered the bigger and better new varsity football team more enthusiastically for included on it were the following: Gerald Mullaney, Jon Robinson, Ray Lantinen, Don Granberg, Paul Downer, Fran Jennette, Don Perry, Richard Arnold, Ernest Desanti, Bill Balcom, Bob Johnson, Edward Jameson and Robert Sanders.

"The Girls' Hockey Team included Carol Ann Watts, Allegra Johnson, Georgiana Pruneau and Janet Rice.

"The cheerleading squad was now open to members of your class. Your fine representatives were Muriel Barnjum and Marilyn Flagg. Helping these cheerleaders along with the team spirit were Sandra Benson and Joanne Johnson, drum majorettes.

"Then it came, June 1, the day of your Junior Prom. How excited you had been getting ready for this big event! You had been as busy as bees making Oriental decorations for the prom, the theme of which was 'Shinkiro.' That night the gymnasium was a heavenly splendor and all your hard work and preparation had shown itself. In the gym was an arbor where your queen, Marilyn Lundquist, was crowned. Among the members of her court was Sallie Steele.

"This practically closed the year for you, for there were only a few more days left. What a wonderful year it had been, but there was still a more wonderful one ahead of you!

"September finally came for you, Class of '57, your senior year. You had made it! This remarkable group had come into its own. Now you were the 'wheels' to be looked up to and to set the pace. You were truly upperclassmen, leaders, as, of course, you rightfully should be.

"This year, Class of '57, was to be your busiest, fullest, and most unforgettable of all. To be sure, it started off with a bang!

"The Wachusett Mountaineers plunged into the football season, led by your old standbys: Bud Amidon, Fran Jennette, Paul Downer, Don Granberg, Bob Johnson, Bill Calcom, Ray Lantinen, Jon Miles and Don Perry.

"Your dependable Girls' Hockey team had a fine record, aided by your own Carol Ann Watts, Allegra Johnson and Georgiana Pruneau.

"Next came the biggest event of the fall season. This talented class was to present its Senior Play. After weeks of hard work and anticipation came the Wachusett Premiere of Our Hearts Were Young and Gay. Heading the fine cast were Marilyn Lundquist and Penny Drawbridge. Other gifted thespians included Richard Wylie, Sandra Smith, Ralph Takala, Richard Skarin, Judy Hebert, Dana Keirstead, Richard Lambert, Sue Carlson, Joanne Lyman, Calvin Anderson, Sandra Jacobson, Jacqueline LaHair, Elizabeth Hull, Richard Green and Paul Boucher. A large portion of the class turned out to work backstage and, under the able direction of Mr. Robert Barker, it was a great success.

"Once again the basketball season was upon us. Cheered on to victory were your seniors: Bud Amidon, Fran Jennette, and a new face, John Torrant.

"A credit to the Girls' Basketball team was Grace Tambolleo.

"Encouraging the varsity squad were the Wachusett Cheerleaders, including this year, Captain Muriel Barnjum and Marilyn Lundquist.

"By now, of course, you were all anxious to begin work on one of the major undertakings of your high school career, the yearbook. Allegra Johnson was chosen Editor-in-Chief and her assistant editors were Joanne Lyman, Mary Oliver and Elizabeth Hinckley.

"With the aid and co-operation of an ambitious staff, the yearbook of the Class of '57 was prepared for publication.

"The Wachusett 'Echo', now in its third year, was beginning to grow under the capable guidance of its editor, Mary Oliver.

"One of the most active organizations in the school, the Future Teachers of America, boasted as its officers: president, Sue Carlson; vice-president, Allegra Johnson; secretary, Marilyn Lundquist; treasurer, Christine Hanson; and Historian, Andrea Rogers.

"For your Student Council representatives, this year, Class of '57, you chose Sandra Jacobson, Allegra Johnson and Catherine Christmas. An automatic member was your class president, Don Perry; he represented your school at Good Government Day in March at the State House.

"It's no wonder that this great class reached such heights being led by such remarkable officers as president, Don Perry; vice-president, Sue Carlson; secretary, Andrea Rogers, treasurer, Aaron Goodale. However, these gifted few did not work alone, for they were aided by a cabinet of prominent individuals which included Joanne Lyman, John Torrant, Muriel Barnjum, Joe Deery, Sally Steele, Jane Putnam, and Clark Taylor.

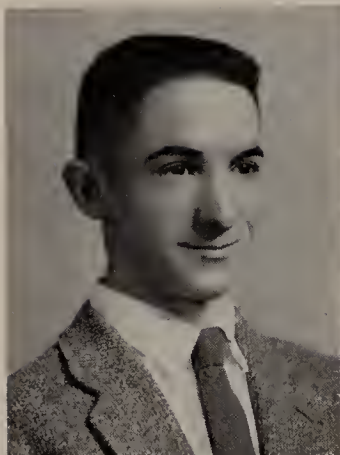

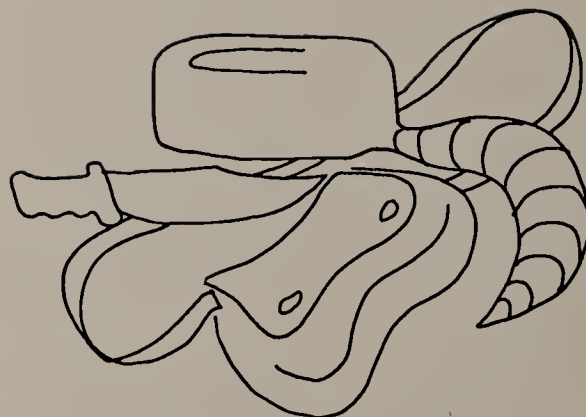

"Taking part this year in the annual Drama Festival were seniors Dick Green, Sandra Jacobson, Sue Person, Janet Hogberg, Bella LaHair and Catherine Christmas.

"About mid-winter you began making plans for the biggest social event of the year, your Senior Prom. Everyone joined in to work on the numerous committees. The gym was magically transformed into "Carnivale de Venizia." This unique visit to old Venice proved to be a great success.

"For the remaining months this promising class ran true to form, accomplishing many noteworthy feats, until they reached the long awaited Graduation Day.

"Well, Class of '57, as we look back on your brilliant high school career which formed the foundation for your life work, we realize that ultimate success and prosperity were inevitable. How could the future hold anything but golden days for such a fine group!"

CATHERINE CHRISTMAS
MARILYN LUNDQUIST

Dennis Russell Abbott

"A good nature and a smile go a lang while."

Dennis is one of the quietest boys in our class, but he is always willing to lend a helping hand and is very reliable. Friendly and a gentleman, he especially likes photography and collecting guns.

North High School (Worcester) 1; Future Farmers of America 1; Chorus 4.

Margaret Adams

"Quiet by nature, yet fun loving, too."

"Marggie" is a reserved senior whose pleasant and co-operative ways have won her many friends. Her neat appearance alone has won her much admiration throughout her four years of high school. With her ability and winning ways we wish her the best of luck in future college years.

Holden High School 1; Field Hockey 1; Basketball 2; French Club 3, 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Class Color Committee 4; Senior Play Ticket Committee 4; Senior Prom Program Committee 4; Junior Prom Ticket Committee 3; National Honor Society 3, 4; Honor Roll 1, 2, 3, 4; Monitor 4.

George John Ahearn

"Good nature and good sense are never separated."

George is one of those good-natured fellows who has a smile for all that he meets. Even when he tries to be serious, that winning smile keeps popping out. He has spirit a-plenty and is always out for a good time. A disposition like his is a fine asset. We wish him all the luck in the world in whatever he undertakes.

Holden High School 1.

Patrick Andrew Ahearn

"Wit and wisdom are born with a man."

There are some people that always seem to be happy about something. "Pat" happens to be one of that type. He is good-natured to the last letter. Although "Pat" hasn't played on any of our teams, he is always on the sideline rooting for Wachusett. Baseball, football, basketball, he follows them all.

Holden High School 1.

Arthur Paul Alisio

"Underneath this crown of innocence."

"Art's" personality is a delightful combination of mischief, ambition, innocence, determination, and ability. His friends know him as a fun-loving yet hard-working fellow. His plans for the future are not certain yet, but we know he will succeed.

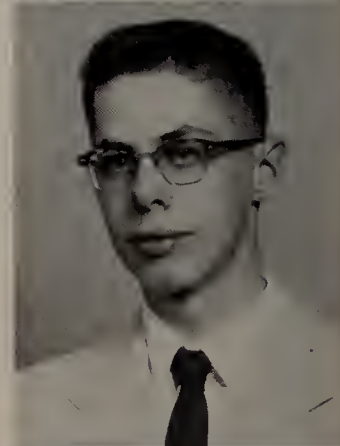

Rutland High School 1.

Stanley Barnard Amidon

"Life is nane toa lang for me."

"Buddie" has one of the best school records in sports for the Class of '57. His great sense of humor adds to the class spirit.

Holden High School 1; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramural Baseball Club (Vice-President) 4.

Calvin Roger Anderson

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

"Cal" is one of our class wits. His clever and timely remarks have left many a class in an uproar of laughter. We are sure he will be a success in whatever field he chooses. Good luck in the future, "Cal"!

Holden High School 1; Art 1; Freshman Assembly 1; Football J. V. Squad 1; Class Treasurer 1; Track 2, 3; Intramural Club 2, 3; Science Club 3, 4; Talent Show 3; Senior Play Cast 4.

Penelope Gay Arsenault

"She touches nothing but she adds charm."

Who at Wachusett hasn't a warm spot in his heart for a person like "Penny." Her good nature has helped us realize that school isn't so monotonous after all. To some, she seems rather quiet and shy, but to those who know her, she is far from that. Best of luck to you in your chosen profession.

Fitchburg High School 1, 2; Clinton High School 2; Chorus 1; Photography Club 4; Yearbook Staff 4.

Bruce Stratton Baker

"Silence is the perfectest herald of joy."

A good student and a good friend, Bruce should have no trouble in whatever he does next year. Does he seem reserved? Wait 'til you get to know him. Bruce will be remembered for "Jerome," his jeep that made it when all other vehicles failed.

Leominster High School 1; Boys' State Representative 3; Spanish Club 4; Spanish Newspaper (Co-Editor) 4.

William Donald Balcom

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."

His mischievous smile, "corny" jokes, and ability to help others have gained him many friends. Although he is quiet he is never shy. He plans to enter the Marines after graduation and we wish him the best of luck.

Major Edwards High School 1; Baseball 1; Junior Prom Committee 3; J. V. Football 3; Varsity Football 4.

Muriel Bertha Barnjum

"Health and happiness mutually beget each other."

"Terry" is friendly, attractive, neat, studious, and is the possessor of a healthy, pink complexion, brown, soft eyes, and a grand smile. This cute cheerleader will surely succeed in whatever she attempts.

Leominster High School 1; Student Council 1; Junior Cabinet 3; Drama and One-Act Plays 3; Cheerleader 3, 4 (Captain 4); Honor Society 3, 4; Christmas Play Production 3, 4; Senior Cabinet 4; Monitor 4; French Club 4; Spanish Club 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Honor Roll 1, 2, 3, 4.

William Carlton Barron

"None nome him but to praise him."

"Bill" is one of the most talented and capable members of the class. A good example of this is his excellent job as stage manager of the senior play. His friendly smile is a welcome sight in the senior corridor. Because of his terrific, well-rounded personality we expect great things from "Bill" in the future.

Rutland High School 1; Honor Roll 2, 3; Class Marshal 1; Senior Play Crew 2, 3, 4 (Stage Manager 4); Echo Staff 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Class Motto Committee 4.

Vivian Ann Bashaw

"An unspoken word doeth no harm."

Vivian is one of the quietest members of our class. She has many friends and she is always ready to help when she is needed. Good luck to you, "Viv," in whatever field you choose.

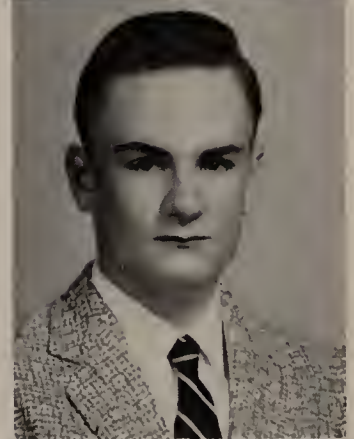

Rutland High School 1; Glee Club 1.

Sandra Elaine Benson

"'Tis better to do o little good thon to do o groat deal bodily."

Whenever you're with "Bess" you are sure to have a good time. Her witty remarks, friendly smile, and artistic ability are a few assets that fit this charming miss to a "T".

Holden High School 1; Pep Squad 1, 2, 3; Majorette 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Chorus 4; Senior Play 4; Senior Prom Committee 4.

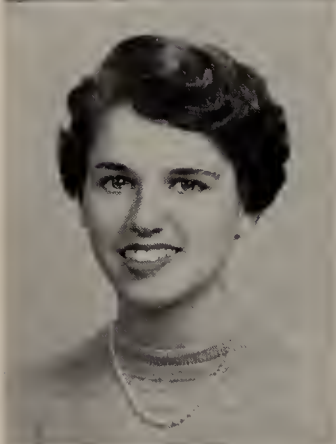

Carol Elaine Berggren

"Amiability shines by its own light."

Carol is one of the quietest members of our class, but her easy-going manner and friendly smile have won her many friends. Carol is a capable and reliable senior, and she will surely succeed in her career as a secretary.

Holden High School 1; Freshman Assembly 1; Honor Roll 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Senior Prom Committee 4.

Marjorie Ilene Bolster

"Nothing was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

"Margie" is full of fun and fancy free. She is a true friend and has a kind and cheerful "Hello" for everyone. Whenever there is a job to be done you can count on "Margie" to help. "Margie's" sparkling personality is also found at Howard Johnson's soda fountain where she has made many friends. Best of luck, "Margie."

Holden High School 1; Chorus 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Pep Squad 2, 3; Intramural Club 3, 4; Homeroom Bank Teller 3; Yearbook Staff 4; Photography Club 4; Future Teachers of America 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Monitor 4; Echo Staff 4; Senior Play Crew 4; Senior Prom Committee 4.

Paul Henry Boucher, Jr.

"Men are judged by their actions but not by their words."

Although many will remember him only as the window washer in the senior play, Paul is a genial, good-humored young man. His ready smile and witty remarks add zest to any classroom.

Major Edwards High School 1; Class President 1; Varsity Baseball 1; Senior Play Cast 4.

Ruth Esther Brodeur

"She lives in peace with all mankind."

Whenever you saw a neat-looking bit of feminine attraction walking along the corridor, you may be sure that it was "Toozie." Friendship was evidently her companion, as she seems to be everybody's pal. Making friends is easy, but keeping them is a virtue. Her good nature and jovial mood are assets anyone would desire. In whatever field you pick, Ruth, we sincerely wish you the best of luck.

Birmingham High School (Michigan) 1; Garcon Club 1; French Club 1; Choir 1; Glee Club 1, 2; Homeroom Secretary 1; School Variety Show 1, 2, 3; Pep Club 1, 2; Costumes for Field Day 1; Yearbook Staff 4; Senior Prom Committee (Publicity) 4.

Clarence Walter Burnham

"In quietness lies hidden friendship."

He's quiet, yes, but watch out! Under that calm interior there is a live wire. He goes about his work silently, but does his job well.

Holden High School 1.

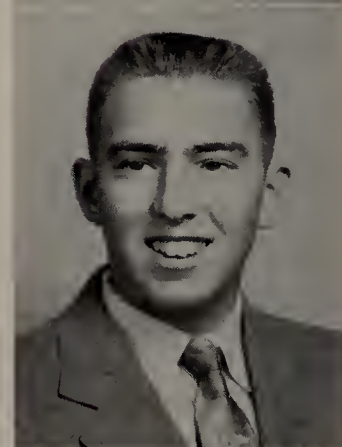

Janice Ann Bissonnette

"Quiet and feminine."

Although "Jan" is one of the quiet members of the Senior Class, her sincerity and co-operativeness make her outstanding. We're sure she will be a success in any task she undertakes.

Holden High School 1; Traveling Assembly 1; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Drama Club 4.

Donald Rawdon Boyce, Jr.

"A little man can make a lot of noise."

There is never a dull moment when "Don" is around, for he's always found in the midst of things. Best of luck in the future.

Holden High School 1; Christmas Play 2; Track 2; Intramural Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Helena Broda

"A cheerful disposition is a gift of the gods."

"Broda" is a girl with a terrific personality. She has many friends and is willing to help them in any way she can. We all wish "Broda" the best of luck at college.

Leominster High School 1; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1; Yearbook Staff 4; Echo Staff 3, 4; Senior Play 4; Pep Squad 3, 4; Senior Prom Committee 4; Monitor 4; Honor Roll 1, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Basketball, Refreshments 4.

Mary Ann Burzenski

"She's here, she's there, she's all about, lots of pep, and a real good scout."

Here is Mary, always on the go. She likes to have fun all the time. Mary has a wonderful sense of humor. Above all, she likes to eat, and she enjoys sleeping, too. We hope your dreams come true, Mary.

St. Mary's High School (Worcester) 1; Glee Club 1; Chorus 4; Pep Squad 3; Majorette 4; Photography Club 4; Intramural Badminton 3; Yearbook Staff (Manager) 4.

Howard Leslie Byram, Jr.

"Naise is nat necessary far success."

"Buddy" is the quiet type with a good sense of humor. Friendly with a sincere attitude, his greatest interest is in antique guns.

Chandler Street Junior High School (Worcester) 1; Gym Leader Corps 2, 3; Senior Play Set 4.

Judith Helen Caldwell

"The deepest rivers flow with the least sound."

"Judy" is quiet, refined, and has no enemies. She is always willing to render her services. Beneath the poise there lurks a little devilry which exposes itself once in a while when she's among close friends.

Holden High School 1; Intramurals 2, 3, 4; Drama Festival 3; Monitor 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Honor Roll 1, 3.

Janet Miles Calkins

"Always happy, always gay, we find her smiling every day."

"Jan," a quiet, good-natured girl, gets along with people very well and has many friends. She wants to be a nurse, and with these qualifications we know she will make it.

Rutland High School 1; Glee Club 1; Chorus 2, 3, 4; Cheerleader 1; Homeroom Bank Teller 1; Junior Red Cross 1, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Senior Play Committee 3, 4; Honor Roll 1, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Yearbook Staff 4.

Suzanne Olive Carlson

"I am the spirit of the marning sea, I am the awakening and the glad surprise."

She's a talker, a good leader, an organizer, a really frustrated artist, and a good sport with a bright sense of humor. "Sue" is very individualistic, and a hard worker on sets and prom decorations. Behind that prim little bun there are lots of ideas.

North High School (Worcester) 1; Demosthenes Club 1; Junior Prom Committee (Chairman) 3; Senior Prom Committee 4; Echo Art Staff 3; Future Teachers of America 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Senior Play Cast 4; Monitor 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Honor Roll 2, 3, 4.

Barbara Childs

"What she daes, she does well."

Looking for a girl with a pleasing personality, a pleasant smile, and witty expressions? "Barb" is the girl that has them. Good luck from the Class of '57.

Major Edward High School 1; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Honor Roll 4.

Catherine Theresa Christmas

"He wha serves most, deserves mast."

"Cath" is a soft-spoken and friendly senior. Her whimsical sense of humor and her love of a good joke make her a welcome addition to any group. Best of luck in the future, "Cath." We know you will succeed in whatever field you choose.

Holden High School 1; Pep Squad 1; Intramural Club 1; Honor Roll 1; Class Secretary 2; Student Council (President) 4; Echo Staff 3, 4 (Assistant Editor 3, Literary Editor 4); Girls' State Representative 3; Monitor 3, 4; Senior Play (Stage Manager) 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Senior Prom Committee 4.

Harry Churchey

"He shall nat labor in vain."

Harry is very enthusiastic in auto mechanics. Wherever he goes in life he will be happy so long as he works with cars.

Holden High School 1; Future Farmers of America 1.

Beverly Ruth Clark

"It's good to be merry and wise."

"Bev" is cute and popular. She is a great majorette. Her vim, vigor, and vitality are used for riding her pony and for other outdoor sports. Best of luck, "Bev."

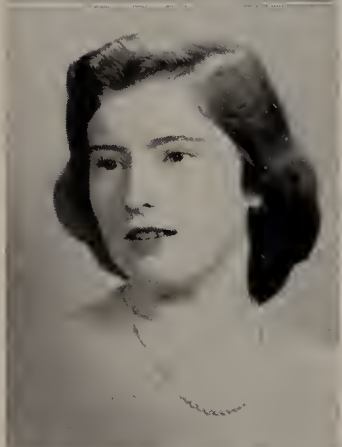

Holden High School 1; Monitor 4; Majorette 4; Camera Club 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Senior Play (Production) 4; Pep Squad 1.

Judith Ann Clark

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Where there is fun and laughter, you'll find "Judy." There is never a dull moment when she is around. When she is flying high, as an airline stewardess, we hope she thinks of us.

Ruth Marie Clockedile

"A likeable redhead with a friendly smile."

"Cookie" is a mischievous little girl who's always looking for something to do besides homework. She is also dependable and willing to help others. We all wish her luck working at State Mutual.

Holden High School 1; Honor Roll 1; Pep Squad 1; Monitor 4.

Gregson Lewis Cobb

"To eat, to drink, and to be merry."

With his friendly greeting and easy manner, "Greg" is sure to have friends wherever he goes. A sportsman all the way, he has been a top track man for Wachusett's track team. Best of luck next year, "Greg."

Leominster High School 1; Intramural Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Gym Leader Corps 3; Y. M. C. A. Judo Team 4.

Linda Ann Cook

"Her tongue is the law of kindness."

"Cooky" is thoughtful of others and a good sport. No favor is too great to ask of her. The Church Fellowship has been improved by her support. Best of luck in the nursing profession!

Holden High School 1; Monitor 4; Chemistry Club 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Latin Club 3; Junior Classical League 3.

Shirley Ann Crawford

"Quiet by nature, yet fun loving, too."

"Shirl" is one of the cutest girls in the Senior Class and has the prettiest eyes. Although she seems shy at first, she is a good friend and full of fun when you get to know her. We wish her the best of luck in the future and know that she will succeed in whatever she attempts.

Holden High School 1; Pep Squad 1; Chorus 1; Monitor 4; Senior Play Crew 4; Senior Prom Committee 4.

Vivian Janet Crawford

"Since life is brief, we need to make it bright."

"Ann" is a true friend, full of good humor and wit. She always knows the answers or can say something to make you think she does. "Ann" is going into nursing and we know she will be a success. In fact, we rather envy her "patients." Best of luck, "Ann!"

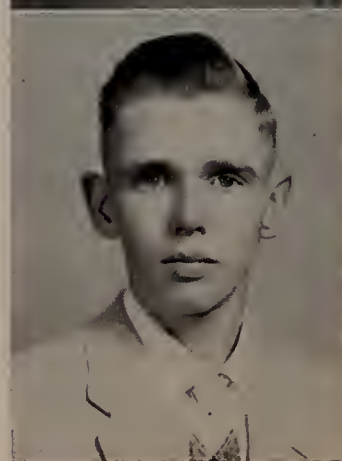

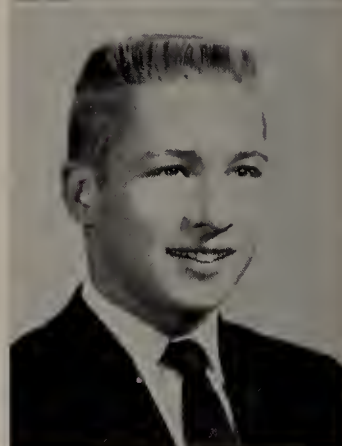

Holden High School 1; Senior Play Crew 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Senior Prom Committee 4; Monitor 4.

Richard Roderick Dahlquist

"His ways are ways of pleasantness, and all his paths are peace."

"Dick" is a very likeable senior who, with his easy-going ways and determination, will attain great success in future years. Best of luck in the Navy!

Holden High School 1; Intramurals 2, 3.

Robert Henry Dahlquist

"Whatever thy hond findeth to da, do it with thy might."

The "electronics man," "Bob" is always on hand backstage during any stage production at Wachusett. With this inquiring mind and love of debate he is sure to be a success. Best of luck at Worcester Tech!

Holden High School 1; Audio-Visual Staff 2, 3, 4; Science Club 3; Science Fair 3; Senior Play Stage Crew 4.

Judith Elaine Daniels

"She makes the somber holls resound with goles of corefree laughter."

If you should happen to enter a classroom any time and hear a great deal of laughter, you're sure to find "Judy" there. Her witty remarks and friendly personality have won her many friends and will win her many more in the future.

Commerce High School (Worcester) 1; Intramurals 2; Junior Prom Committee 3.

Carol Ann Davey

"A friendly face with a smile for oll."

Carol is a sweet and understanding girl. She is always willing to lend a helping hand when there is a job to be done. Carol plans to enter Wheaton College after graduation. We all wish you success.

Holden High School 1; Honor Roll 1, 4; High Honors 1; Magazine High Salesman 1; Glee Club 1, 3, 4; Freshman Assembly 1; Intramural Club 2, 3; French Club 2, 3; Lab Assistant 3; Science Club (Secretary) 3; Chemistry Club 4; Senior Play Committee 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Art 1; Christmas Assembly 3, 4; Latin Club 2.

Class Will

WE, THE CLASS OF 1957, BEING OF SUPERIOR AND PHENOMENAL INTELLIGENCE, BUT OF OVERWORKED MIND AND TIRED BODY, DO HEREBY LEAVE THIS, OUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT:

Article I

Item 1 — To the "Next year no one will be able to boss us around" Juniors we leave our fabulous record so that they may make an attempt to measure up to it. We also leave them any blank passes that we have left over in June, trusting that they will know how to use them.

Item 2 — To the "What would the school do without us" Sophomores, we leave our left-over supply of white-lined paper so they won't have to pilfer it as we did.

Item 3 — To the "Who says I have to show you my pass?" Freshmen we leave a large piece of nothing. They are thoroughly convinced they have everything.

Item 4 — To the "Now we'll have real homework" incoming Freshmen we leave a study file of notebooks, themes, research papers, and Latin trots so that they may be able to do "on the spot" homework assignments as we did.

Article II

Item 1 — To the "Well, I guess it's more interesting than study hall would be" monitors we leave cushioned chairs in one corner of one corridor complete with a large wastebasket for tin foil, paper bags, tangerine skins, apple cores, and breadcrusts. We leave this arrangement so they may meet comfortably rather than standing or sitting on the floor.

Item 2 — We leave our noontime monitor posts to anyone who has enough courage and football equipment to handle the persistent pushing mob.

Article III

Item 1 — Gerry "Let's go hunting" Mullaney leaves with his gun and pass slip to go hunting.

Item 2 — Nancy "How do you like this one, girls?" Rutherford leaves her love of Latin to any unsuspecting freshman who might get into that class by accident or false information.

Item 3 — Helen "Don't call me Yellen Honker" Yonker leaves her special Wednesday gym suit to Suzie "Let's keep it in the family" Viner.

Item 4 — Ernie "Did you ever grow plants without dirt?" Desanti leaves his chemicals to Theron "I'll try it without chemicals" Cole.

Item 5 — Janet "I get sick when I eat in restaurants" Hogberg leaves all her psychological worries to Kay "I don't have a worry in the world" Holland.

Item 6 — Janice "My aunt teaches math" Horrigan leaves to follow in her aunt's footsteps with a career in math.

Item 7 — Pat "I didn't mean to knock you down, but I was hungry" Ahearn leaves, glad his schedule didn't make him wait any longer than A lunch.

Item 8 — Bill "When they say I'm fast, they are referring to running" Balcom leaves his speed in football to someone a little heavier.

Item 9 — Richard "Have you ever been to Rutland?" Johnson leaves to make good use of his training in Aggy.

Item 10 — Donald "Are you suggesting that I would lock my car and leave it in the parking lot just because the Registry was here?" Lindberg leaves, still avoiding the Registry.

Item 11 — Eddie "At least I'm taking Janet with me" Olson leaves, taking Janet with him.

Item 12 — Margy "Have you seen Dick around?" Adams leaves her ability to go steady to Bobby "I have a lot more fun" Hodgman.

Item 13 — Sandra "They call me 'Bess'" Benson leaves her seat in a new red sports car to Gail "I ride in a sports car, too" Taylor.

Item 14 — Bob "Want to go to the Science Fair with me?" Dahlquist leaves his mechanical reasoning ability to any Junior who can use it so successfully.

Item 58 — Shirley "I'm quiet" Crawford leaves her big blue eyes to Ronnie "I can't keep mine open" Schofield.

Item 59 — Dave "Why was Tennyson ever born?" Waters leaves his dislike of the Idylls to next year's English class which will undoubtedly feel the same way.

I, Sandra Jacobson, and I, Sally Steele, do depart with the unsurpassed Class of 1957, leaving the halls of Wachusett High School ringing with silence for the first time in its history.

Class Prophecy

All aboard! I seized my ticket and rushed toward the waiting rocket ship, "Son Young," at the other end of the Nevada proving ground. This famous ship was named after her extraordinary designers, David Olson and John Young. Richard Wylie, complete with space suit and ray gun, directed me to my seat. I was eager to begin my journey to the newly colonized satellite which Elizabeth Hinckley had recently discovered. She contributed her success to the telescope which David Westwood had made for her. Robert Johnson, the pilot, and Judy Hebert, co-pilot, gave us last-minute instructions about our safety belts, and we were off.

On the way, Evelyn Riggles, heiress to a famous nation-wide dry cleaning institute, was making a fruitless attempt to help her partner, Pauline Morse, who had accidentally unfastened her safety belt and floated to the ceiling of the rocket ship. All about us were Brenda Minisci's beautiful travel posters and "hi-fi" walkie-talkies which John Samborski and Paul Peterson had manufactured. I busied myself by reading Janet Calkin's biography of George Ahearn, the plutonium tycoon, and soon after, we arrived!

Joy Wasson, the stewardess, helped us collect our belongings. Through the door I could see an exciting new world of a strange architectural design which Lois Pickett had accidentally created while trying to make a doll house for her children.

Willard Lemaire was running around with a geiger counter, and Betsey Smith was carefully recording his discoveries. Ruth Brodeur, secretary to Jon Miles, president of the satellite, read us an address of welcome and invited us to go on a sight-seeing trip with Bruce Baker and Paul Downer as our guides.

As we proceeded down the main street of the satellite, I saw a poster on the front of one of the buildings which advertised the dancing school of Sandra Smith, a famous choreographer. We could see her trying to teach modern dancing to Marilyn Lundquist and Elizabeth Hull, two instructors in her employment, who were having quite a bit of trouble lifting their lead boots. Sandra Jacobson was loudly playing progressive disharmony as an accompaniment. Earl Wagner, the detective's detective, was standing outside of Muriel Barnjum's pill factory eyeing Donald Boyce, who he suspected had taken one.

Ann Reynolds nearly hit our guide as she buzzed by in her sports rocket. She was a successful dime store manager, and she couldn't resist exceeding the speed of sound right through a thickly settled area.

We ate lunch at a restaurant owned by Christine Hanson and Judith Pendleton. The food didn't taste too good, but it was heavy enough to help gravity keep us on the ground. We paid the cashier, Judy Caldwell, and resumed our tour where we left off. It had grown dark and cold, so we decided to go to a movie. Karen Manty and Clark Stuart were starring in Vivian Crawford's award-winning, science-fiction thriller, "Cave Man." The spherical screen designed by Richard Green and Thomas Junell completely engulfed us, but automatic revolving chairs invented by Judy Clark enabled us to see any side. Their unimaginable speed also prevented us from missing any of the picture as we turned.

During intermission I saw Marjorie Bolster and Joan Gibbons in the lobby. They told me that they were employed by Shirley De Luca at the local chapter of the Mickey Mouse Club. I bought some rock candy from Nancy Holloway which was ninety-five per cent rock, four per cent candy, and one per cent your-guess-is-as-good-as-mine. She assured me, however, that it was fresh, since she had just made it herself with the aid of her cooking instructor, Carol Johnson. When the show was over, Harry Churchey, the theater manager, personally thanked us for attending.

While going through the United Planets building, Carol De Sautes got lost, so we reported her to Gail Lundblad, a tracer of missing persons. We found Carol, a serious-minded art critic, in an art gallery studying pictures of such ancient relics as automobiles and airplanes which had been skillfully depicted by Sandra Lloyd. Avis Taylor, building superintendent, came in and told us that the building was being closed, so we'd have to leave. On our way out we passed a conference room in which Dennis Abbott and Donald Granberg were having a heated discussion on the political significance of the rising cost of pickled herring. Carol Berggren was acting as stenographer, since she really didn't know shorthand.

Outside, Everett Willey, vice-president, presented Joanne Matis with the key ring to the city for her efforts in planning the transportation for gold-fish. She beamed happily as Barbara Childs took her picture for Jane Tienhaara's newspaper.

By now it was getting late, so we headed back to the rocket depot. Jean Fogg, a receptionist at the depot, informed us that our rocket wasn't due for a few minutes. I tuned in on Marilyn Flagg's trans-planetary disc-jockey show. I heard Bella La Hair's newest recording, "Pennies From Mars," and an advertisement for Jean Dufur's colored gas masks.

Then Arthur Alisio announced that our ship had arrived. At the door, Robert Davis and Robert Rich took our tickets, and Vivian Bashaw sold souvenirs and programs. I saw the mechanics, Margaret Ford and Carol Kirkpatrick, giving the rocket a last-minute check. Carol Rosenlund and Edward Shephardson, who had organized the trip and were in charge of the group, closed the door of the ship and as soon as I was settled, we were off again.

I leaned back, and as we started home I thought about that time when we had all been in school together and how far we all had come since then. There was no doubt about it, even thirty years later the class of 1957 of W. R. H. S. was the best and most successful of all.

THE WACHUSETT YEARBOOK STAFF

Just as the Senior Prom takes the spotlight as the important social event of the year, so does the Yearbook become the greatest literary event of the year.

Over one-third of the senior class is involved somehow in getting it out. Students invade the privacy of businessmen and private homes and plead with their parents to buy ads so that the Yearbook can be paid for.

Editors and reporters are seen all over the school getting assigned reports written so that they can meet the deadline. The Senior class is prouder of its Yearbook than anything else they may do in school.

The monitor system in a school of the Regional's size is absolutely necessary in order to keep the corridors from clogging up. In the new system now set up there are at least two monitors for every corridor to make sure that the people in the corridors during class or activity period have permission to be there.

The monitors are chosen mainly from the senior class with a few from the junior class. They must volunteer for the job and have sufficient free time to enable them to be in the corridor for a full period.

The spirit at the home football and basketball games was improved greatly by the band. Besides marching at the games during the football season, this musical organization gave two school concerts in co-operation with the chorus, participated in the Central Massachusetts Festival, created brass and woodwind choirs, provided music for the Memorial Day Parade in Sterling, and played for the graduation exercises. Aiding Mr. Barre were Richard Lambert, president; Robert Davis, vice-president; Ann Newell, secretary; Gloria Boughey, treasurer; Bernard Douglas, librarian; Willard Waterhouse, stage manager.

Under the direction of Mr. Howard Barre, the chorus participated in the vocal portions of the winter and spring concerts and the Commencement Exercises.

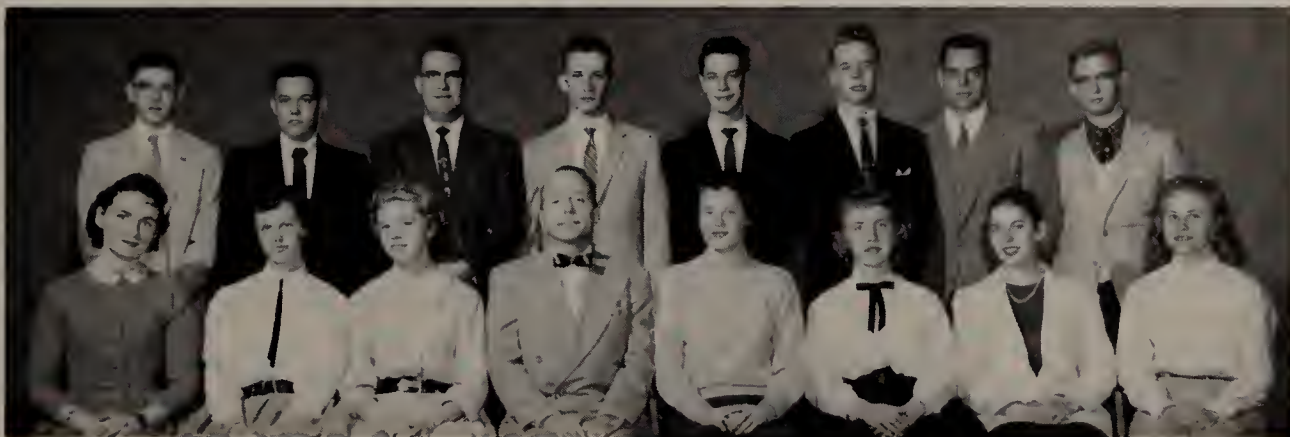

Dramatics . . .

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Barker, many thespian productions have been given this year. The Christmas season was begun with the pageant, "Why the Chimes Rang." The Regional Drama Festival was held again at Wachusett with one play, "Mooncalf Mugford," chosen from the three presented to the school by the drama classes, entered in the competition. This play was one of the four winners. Richard Green, Brenda Leger and Elaine Wall received certificates for outstanding acting.

The first of the Latin Club's two meetings a month is concerned with business, while the second meeting furthers the Roman language and culture through entertainment and the like. A popular activity of this organization is the annual Roman banquet to which club members, the language teachers, Mr. Buker, Mr. Thomas and Mr. LaPrade are invited. This club is associated with the Junior Classical League and was represented at the annual convention in Worcester. Officers are Mary Oliver, president; William Cobb, vice-president; Iris Mardirosian, secretary; Betty Fogg, treasurer.

This is one of the most active organizations in the school. Its members are always making field trips to learn about their chosen vocation. Many of its members are winners of stock or produce-farming prizes throughout New England. Everyone who takes the "Aggie" course is in the FFA and is a member until he is twenty-one.

The members set up and attend many farming programs in and outside the school.

The local chapter has affiliations with the state and national organization. The officers are Robert Davis, president; Richard Holt, vice-president; William Perkins, reporter; Clark Taylor, treasurer; Andy Johnson, sentinel; Donald Hardy, secretary. The advisors are Mr. Jones and Mr. Gribouski.

THE SCIENCE FAIR

The Science Fair first came to Wachusett last year when the Kiwanis Club of Worcester announced that the 1st Worcester County Science Fair was to be held under their sponsorship.

The Fair is a place where a student interested in scientific work may exhibit his original work and see what others have done. If his project is good and he wins, he gets a chance to compete in the Worcester Regional Fair and if he wins again, in the National Science Fair.

Any student enrolled in grades 10, 11, or 12 in a public school in Worcester may enter.

The entries are judged on creative ability, scientific thought, thoroughness, skill, clarity, and dramatic value.

Chemistry Club

This club was started last year as a part of the Science Club organized by the science teachers. This year, the Science Club was broken up into two parts, the Chemistry Club and the Biology Club.

The club has twenty members and every Monday holds a regular meeting, where they discuss their activities and have movies and outside speakers from schools and chemical industry. Under the leadership of their advisor, Mr. Mills, the members learn about chemistry's many uses in industry.

The members also work on a club project with separate groups studying different aspects of the project. The Club officers are Beverly Holmes, president; Catherine Kristoff, vice-president; Dorothy Jean Fogg, secretary.

LIBRARY CLUB

Aiding students in their pursuit of "book learning" is the library club. The officers are Donald Hordy, president; Horvey Turner, vice-president; Joanne Prescott, secretary; William Lundquist, treasurer. This organization, originally under the advisement of the late Miss Carlsan, now functions under the guidance of Mrs. Wadleigh.

Miles, D. Mayo, J. Blodgett, C. Spillaine, S. Smith, K. Simonds, H. Zottoli, S. Kiuisto, J. Gibson, J. Buxton, N. Woodcock, J. Rice.

All French students have been given the opportunity to join the French Club under the supervision of Mr. Rousseau. The group is concerned with creating interest in the French language and people by means of music, correspondence, and use of the language at meetings. The executive board consists of Elaine Wall, president; Lois Ruggles, secretary; Gail Phillips, treasurer; Brenda Leger and Katherine Simonds, social chairmen,

Biology Club

First Row, left to right: P. Popowicz, C. Hanson, B. Bigelow, J. Cole, M. Aho, C. Evans, J. Crocco, J. Wisner, A. Boisvert, J. Sperl. Second Row, left to right: Mrs. Smith, R. Janowski, R. The Biology Club consists of thirty-five members who are in the biology course this year. Like the Chemistry Club, it holds meetings and has many activities which the members engage in. They have speakers and movies on biology at many of their meetings.

The members have many projects around the school on which they work. The Biology Club meets to learn about biology outside of schoolbooks.

The Club officers are: William Maloney, president; Paul Lamoureux, vice-president; Ronald Janowski, treasurer; Janet Cole, secretary. The advisor is Mrs. Smith.

Camera Club

The Camera Club was started the year that the Regional was opened and has been proven a source of a good deal of fun and many useful experiences and laughs for the members.

The members learn how to use a camera and developing equipment correctly. They are allowed to try their own methods and experiments and have turned out many fine pictures of school athletics and activities such as the Senior Play. The officers and advisors arrange for speakers and movies for their regular meetings.

Besides contests inside the club, the members also set up a photography contest, which anybody in the school may enter, and the entries are judged with some help from the faculty.

The officers are Stephen Neale, president; Judith Pendleton, vice-president; Eileene MacKizer, secretary; Bonnie Bigelow, treasurer.

Spanish Club

The football season ended at Wachusett Regional High in a successful manner. The team won four games while losing three. One week before school began, the squad started reporting. Seven regulars were missing from the previous year, but the squad had had some experience. The team elected Don Perry and Buddy Amidon co-captains for the year. Mr. Pinto, our new coach, worked the squad hard to get ready for their season.

Wachusett's first encounter was at the Jamboree at Northbridge, and our opponent was Westboro. Westboro scored 20 points while Wachusett was held scoreless. The next week we went to the Athletic Field in Worcester to play Classical High. The first half of the game was scoreless with Wachusett fumbling often. In the second half Wachusett controlled the ball almost throughout, and in the last quarter, Bruce Kingdon scored two touchdowns on runs of 5 and 75 yards. Stewart Bailey scored an extra point on a rush.

Our next game was with Gardner. Gardner, a bigger and harder hitting team, went on to win, 40-7.

FOOTBALL

The following week was our first home game and we were hosts to Auburn High. Auburn jumped out to a 12-0 lead in the first half, even though Wachusett repeatedly was deep within Auburn territory. In the second half, Wachusett came back with 13 points to win in the last four minutes. Bob Sanders scored on a plunge and Bruce Kingdon scored after the touchdown was set up by a 50-yard run by Roger Lindfors.

Our fourth game was against Shrewsbury High at Holden. Once again Wachusett came from behind in the closing minutes. Roger Lindfors scored around the end on a 14-yard run to put Wachusett ahead. Bruce Kingdon scored the other touchdown on a pass from Lindfors and a run which covered 67 yards. The final score was Wachusett 13, Shrewsbury 7.

Wachusett next played two teams from Fitchburg, Notre Dame and St. Bernard's. We suffered defeats from both Notre Dame 26, Wachusett 12, and St. Bernard's 18, Wachusett 6.

Our last game was against Mary Wells High of Southbridge. Wachusett won, 20-7, and came from behind to do it. Southbridge jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the early part of the game, but the tide began to turn when Don Perry intercepted a pass and ran 81 yards for a touchdown. At this point our line started to outplay Southbridge's and, as a result, we went on to score twice more.

Seniors on the team were as follows: Buddy Amidon, Bob Sanders, Don Granberg, Jon Robison, Jon Miles, Don Perry, Franny Jennette, Bill Balcolm, Bob Johnson, and Ray Lantinen. Others receiving varsity letters were Jim Cunningham, Bruce Kingdon, Roger Lindfors, Dick Labossiere, Stewart Bailey, Bill Zinno, Ronny Henderson, Ronny Schofield, Bob Barr, Ward Henson, and Jerry Brodeur.

Mr. Pinto and Mr. Ream did a great job of coaching the team this season and deserve our sincerest thanks and appreciation.

Wachusett ended their season with a record of eight victories and ten defeats, but showed some good, aggressive basketball during the season. Led by co-captains Bud Amidon and Fran Jennette, we had some exciting moments when we defeated Auburn by two points in the final minute, and when Shrewsbury lost to us by three points in a double overtime game. When we played Grafton at the Wachusett Gym, we defeated them by one point, Joe Kapulka, the team's high scorer, got the winning basket with seven seconds to play.

There were disappointments, too, when Uxbridge defeated us 51-49, and when Auburn defeated us 57-52.

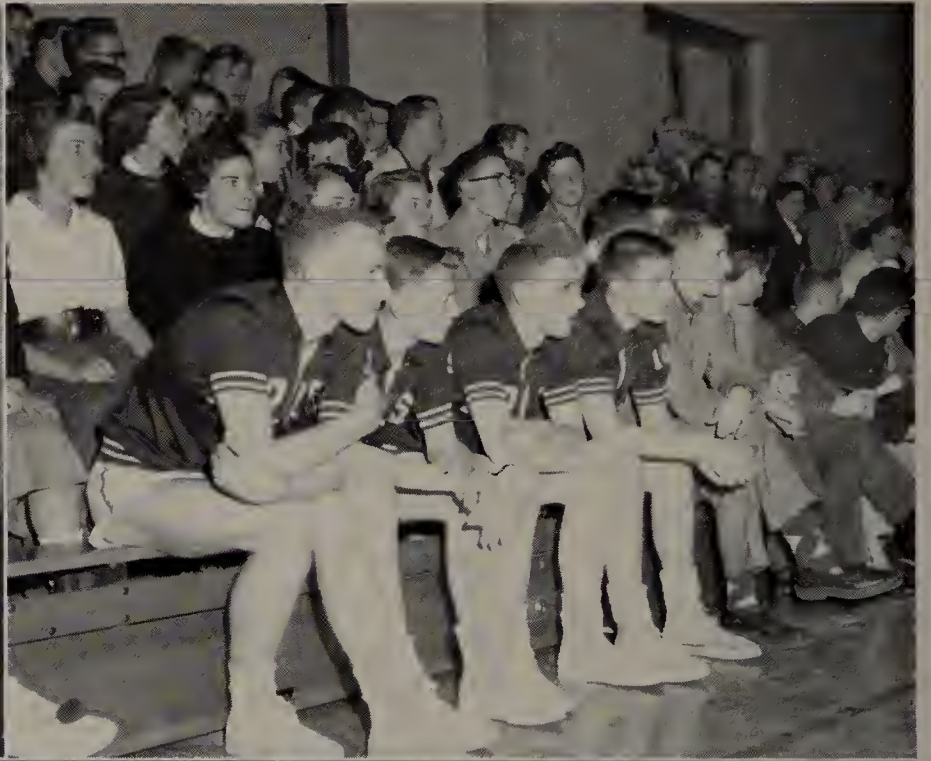

Wachusett had two victories over Westboro, and single victories over Auburn, which finished second in the league, Shrewsbury, Clinton, Bartlett of Webster, Uxbridge and Grafton. Two of the best games that we played were the winning games against Shrewsbury and Auburn, in both of which we came from behind.

Seniors on the team were co-captain Bud Amidon, the playmaker of the team and a regular for two years, co-captain Franny Jennette who, although he was the smallest member of the team, had the most points for one game, 21 scored against Auburn, and John Torrant who was new to the school but became the second highest scorer on the team.

Other players on the team were Joe Kapulka, Hank Miller, Brad Carson, Roger Lindfors, Paul Flanagan, Dan Trombi, Bruce Kingdon.

Mr. Sell, the varsity coach, and Mr. Harrity, the junior varsity coach, turned in excellent jobs with both teams and this is appreciated by all.

Girls' Basketball . . .

Wachusett Regional High School's girl's basketball season officially started on January 4th.

The team got off to a fine start by defeating the Millbury six, 31-17.

On January 11th the Wachusett team traveled to Northbridge and beat them, 44-36.

The Shrewsbury girls came to Holden on January 25th, but Wachusett proved the stronger and Shrewsbury lost, 45-26.

On January 28th, Wachusett again met Millbury, this time on Millbury's court, but Wachusett came out on top, beating their rivals, 36-16.

On February 1st, on their home floor, the Wachusett six trampled Leominster, 48-22.

The Wachusett team played host to Northbridge on February 6th for the highest scoring game of the season. Wachusett again whipped the opposing team, 48-37.

On February 8th, the Shrewsbury girls came to Holden for the final game of the season, but Wachusett proved the rightful possessors of the title "undefeated" by beating Shrewsbury, 45-25. Joyce Larson was high scorer with 24 points.

The Varsity squad starting lineup for Wachusett consisted of the following: Carol Majewski and Joyce Larson (co-captains), Judith Decker, Diane Webster, Grace Tambolleo, and Betty Fogg.

High scorers for the season were Judy Decker and Joyce Larson who averaged about 15 points a game.

The J.V.'s also ended the season undefeated.

Both teams have been outstanding and both have been fortunate to have outstanding coaches.

They have well earned the title, "undefeated," and since Grace Tambolleo is the only senior, the team can look forward to next year with high hopes.

FACULTY BASKETBALL

FIELD HOCKEY . . .

The Wachusett Girls' Hackey season officially began on October 2, although the team had begun practicing two weeks after the return to school in September. The varsity first-string lineup was comprised of the following: Allegra Jahnsan (captain), Georgiana Pruneau, Carol Ann Watts, Carol Majewski, Catherine Kristoff, Jayce Larsan, Mary Martelli, Judith Decker, Faith Wheeler, Cecile Hyland, and Darathy Maya.

On October 2, the girls traveled to Leaminsters for their first game. The Leaminsters team proved too fast for the Wachusett eleven and Wachusett lost its first game, 2-1.

The next week on October 9, following a hard practice session, the team met Auburn on home grounds and Auburn fell, 1-0.

Two days later, the Wachusett girls faced Millbury at home and the game ended with a 2-0 victory for Wachusett.

On October 16, the Wachusett team again met Leaminsters, this time in Halden. The girls came through with same excellent teamwork and soundly defeated Leaminsters, 3-2, in one of the most exciting games of the season.

Two days later, the team traveled to Gardner. Although Wachusett played hard, Gardner managed to break through the defense in the last minute of play to score and Wachusett suffered its second defeat.

October 25 saw the players lined up against Auburn on the Auburn field. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

On October 29, on home ground, Wachusett and Shrewsbury fought a hard battle, but the determined Wachusett girls chalked up another victory, 1-0.

The following day the team traveled to Millbury. They were in for a surprise because they found their opponents a much stronger team. Neither was willing to give in, and again the end of the game revealed a scoreless tie.

The fast, ball-carrying eleven from Gardner came to Wachusett's field on November 5. Wachusett proved to be the stronger and came out in the clear with a well-deserved 3-0 victory.

Wachusett faced Shrewsbury at Shrewsbury for the last game of the year and again there was a tie score, 1-1. During this game there were two penalty bullies, quite uncommon in high school hockey.

Throughout the season, Wachusett has scored twelve times against their opponents.

Top scoring honors go to Captain Allegra Jahnsan and Carol Majewski who scored four goals each.

The varsity members playing their last field hockey competition for Wachusett are Allegra Jahnsan, Georgiana Pruneau, and Carol Ann Watts.

The J.V.'s came through the season with a record of six wins, two ties, and one loss.

Many thanks go to the coaches — Mrs. Maultan (Varsity) and Miss Casta (Junior Varsity) who have given the team so much help, inspiration, and time.

Our ever faithful managers — Nancy Lyman, Jayce Buxton, Shirley DeLuca, and Grace Tamballea — also deserve recognition. They were wonderful!

The season has been very successful and next year's team has prospects of being another top-rate squad. Good luck, kids!
